215TH ARMY BAND

REVOLUTION BIO

Music has always played an important military role in America dating back to the birth of the national guard in 1636 on the Salem, Massachusetts common. The 215th Army Band's Revolution was formed to replicate the sounds of the era that brought the 13 colonies independence. The group is under the direction of SSG Joseph Bruneau and SGT Cinnamon Blomquist.

Our program includes:

- York Fusiliers
- A medley of Schwogelmarsch/ Johnny Comes Marching Home/ Battle Hymn of the Republic
- Shipping Up to Boston/ Trip to Sligo
- John Ryan's Polka
- Yankee Doodle/ Girl I Left Behind Me

We hope you enjoy the sounds of revolution.

Thank you

A heartfelt thank you to all the parents, grandparents, siblings, family members, friends, alumni, and alumni parents who helped make this event such a success!

A huge shoutout to our amazing Pit Crew for your hard work with the props, truck loading and unloading, and field duty — we couldn't have done it without you!

And a big thank you to all our Chaperones and event volunteers for your time, energy, and support. Your dedication keeps the music playing and our program thriving!

And to our sponsors:
